Certain statements in this presentation are forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements include statements about our future financial condition, our industry and our business strategy. Statements that contain words such as "anticipate", "believe", "expect", "intend", "estimate", "hope" or similar expressions, are forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are based on the current expectations of PCA.

Because forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties, the plans, actions and actual results of PCA could differ materially. Among the factors that could cause plans, actions and results to differ materially from PCA's current expectations are those identified under the caption "Risk Factors" in PCA's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2023, and in subsequent quarterly reports on Form 10-Q, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and available at the SEC's website at "www.sec.gov".

Non-GAAP financial measures are reconciled to the most comparable GAAP measure in the Appendix.

Positioned to Continue Industry-Leading Performance in 2024 and Beyond

- Improving Packaging segment market conditions in 2nd half of 2023 sets-up great start to 2024
- Packaging segment demand continues to strengthen; 1Q24 corrugated products volume exceeding guidance
- Higher prices in Packaging segment expected from 1Q24 price increases
- Completing Phase II of Jackson conversion to containerboard provides value-creating solutions for Packaging and Paper segment demand and much needed strategic runway for high-value integrated box business, generating long-term value creation
- Continued value creation from robust strategic, cost reduction, and process improvement capital spending programs in corrugated plants and mills
- · Inflation expected to moderate and supply chain challenges have also improved
- Strong balance sheet continues to provide financial flexibility for opportunistic capital allocation and enhancing shareholder returns
